Are solar panels illegal?

Technically, no state outlaws or bans solar panels; quite the opposite. Most states have solar access laws that forbid any agreement, covenant, condition, bylaw, or contract that outlaws or limits solar installations by Homeowners Associations (HOA) or other municipal bodies.

Are solar panels a viable option?

However, some states still make installing solar panels functionally impossible by creating laws with "reasonable restrictions," such as increased taxing, energy caps, or even billing solar panel users. Combine these laws with a lack of incentive programs, and solar panels are not viable for homeowners in many states.

Is it legal to install solar panels yourself?

It is legal to install solar panels yourself. However, it can impact your installation in other meaningful ways. Without MCS accreditation, most energy companies will not allow you to sell excess energy via the Smart Export Guarantee (SEG). Insurance companies may not provide coverage. Can You Legally Install Your Own Solar Panels?

Can I install solar panels on my own property?

And while you can legally install your own solar panels on your own property, it's certainly worth being aware of the responsibilities that come with it and what else it may impact. Firstly, if the solar panels are not installed by an MCS-accredited installer you will not be able to sell your property with the panels included.
